Recommendation 2.7
1. Board has overall responsibility in ensuring that there is a group-wide policy and system governing related party transactions (RPTs) and other unusual or infrequently occurring transactions.	Compliant.	The Audit and Related Party Transaction Committee ensures that related party transactions have no conflict of interest with the directors, officers, or employees. As a matter of practice, all directors, officers and employees have to declare any interest which could conflict with the Company's interest and abstain from voting or approving on matters in which they have an interest. A copy of the Company's policy on related party transactions may be found in the link below: https://www.anchorland.com.ph/wp-content/uploads/2019/10/Policy-on-the-Material-Related-Party-Transactions.pdf

2. RPT policy includes appropriate review and approval of material RPTs, which guarantee fairness and transparency of the transactions.	Compliant.	Under the Company's RPT Policy: The internal audit group shall monitor and evaluate the related party transactions (RPTs) entered by the Group and shall report on status and aggregate exposures of each related party to the Audit, Risk Oversight, and Related Party Transaction Committee on a quarterly basis. The Audit, Risk Oversight, and Related Party Transaction Committee shall review the internal audit report on the RPT on a quarterly basis and report them to the Board. By practice, there is proper reporting, review and approval of transactions between the Company and/or its subsidiaries with any of its directors, officers, significant shareholders(beneficial share ownership of more than 10%), or certain entities or persons related to them ("Related Parties") with related parties to ensure that transactions entered by the Company or its subsidiaries with related parties will be on terms no less favourable to the Company and/or subsidiaries than those entered into with unrelated parties on arm's length normal commercial terms and will not be prejudicial to the Company, its subsidiaries and its minority shareholders.
3. RPT policy encompasses all entities within the group, taking into account their size, structure, risk profile and complexity of operations.	Compliant.

		The Company's policy governs related party transactions between the Company and its subsidiaries (the "Group") and its related parties involving the transfer of resources, services or obligations, regardless of whether a price is charged.
Supplement to Recommendations 2.7
1. Board clearly defines the threshold for disclosure and approval of RPTs and categorizes such transactions according to those that are considered de minimis or transactions that need not be reported or announced, those that need to be disclosed, and those that need prior shareholder approval. The aggregate amount of RPTs within any twelve (12) month period should be considered for purposes of applying the thresholds for disclosure and approval.	Compliant.	The Company's RPT Policy provides: Related party transactions, either individually or part of a series of transactions, other than recurrent related party transactions of revenue or trading nature or those necessary for its day-to-day operations, which exceeds Three Million Pesos (PhP3,000,000.00) in value per year shall be subject to the review and approval of the Audit, Risk Oversight and Related Party Transaction Committee. Such approval will be given if the transactions are in accordance with the Company's usual practices and policies, are on arm's length commercial terms and are at terms no less favourable than those provided by the Company to similar types of transactions with unrelated third parties. If the related party transaction exceeds Ten Million Pesos (PhP 10,000,000.00) the same shall be further subject to the approval by the Board of Directors, in accordance with the criteria mentioned above and shall require further the approval of at least two independent directors who have no interest in the transaction.

2. Board establishes a voting system whereby a majority of non-related party shareholders approve specific types of related party transactions during shareholders' meetings.	Compliant.	As stated above, in lieu of a specific requirement on approval by majority vote of non-related/ public shareholders of transactions with related parties, the policy adopted by the Board requires the approval by at least two independent directors of the transaction with related parties exceeding the threshold of P10 million in value. The independent directors act on behalf of the minority shareholders in approving or disapproving related party transactions.
Recommendation 2.8
1. Board is primarily responsible for approving the selection of Management led by the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) and the heads of the other control functions (Chief Risk Officer, Chief Compliance Officer and Chief Audit Executive).	Compliant.	Under Section B. 1.7 (q) of the Company's Revised Manual of Corporate Governance, it is the duty of the Board to approve the selection and appointment of the Chief Compliance Officer, the Chief Risk Officer and Chief Audit Executive. The Company's Bylaws attached herein for reference also provides for the duty of the Board to select and appoint the Chief Executive Officer. The list of individuals comprising the Company's Management Team is available under the Company's website at the following link: https://anchorland.com.ph/about/
